Playground gates leave kids injured

BY JO DEEKS

Email: editorial@haverhillweeklynews.co.uk

MUMS are calling for urgent action to tackle dangerous playground gates after three children were injured in less than 24 hours.

Ben Harding, 8, was left with blood pouring from his face after the gate at the playground in Chapelwent Road, Haverhill, swung back and hit him in the face on Monday night.

His anxious mum Tracey feared his nose had been broken, but after taking him to the town's Crown Health Centre she was relieved that his face and lips were just badly swollen and his front tooth chipped.

Ben said: "I was just crying because it really hurt. I just saw blood pouring and I have still got bloodstains under my fingernails."

Ben and his friends were at the Recreation Ground playground the next day when the gate swung back and struck Paddy Fahy, 4, leaving him with a lump the size of an egg on his forehead. On the same day Oscar Harvey, 3, suffered a cut lip when the same gate swung back and hit him.

Mrs Harding, 35, of Colbeck Road,

Kids hurt by gates

Haverhill, called for St Edmundsbury Borough Council to review the safety of the gates immediately before any more children were injured.

She said: "He was walking through the gate when it swung straight back and hit him in the mouth. It was horrendous; there was blood everywhere and I did think about calling an ambulance."

"We just feel it should be safer for the children. We could not believe it when the same thing happened to the other children. We thought it would be nice to bring them out, but it turned into a catastrophe."

Julie Harvey, of Castle Lane, Haverhill, said she felt some kind of cushioned tubing might be needed to slow down the gate as it closed. She said: "I can see why it is fast, to stop children running off and dogs getting into the playground. But if it is going to hurt kids, there is no point going to the playground."

"When it happened for the third time, we were beginning to think we were cursed."

A spokesman for St Edmundsbury Borough Council thanked the Weekly News for making the council aware of the problem and said it would be checked out immediately.

She said: "We inspect the play areas every week, in this case last Wednesday. There is nothing in those reports to say there is a problem and we have not done any work to either gate."

"If our playground inspector finds a problem, he will either try to fix it, and if he cannot do that straight away, he will take the gate down."

Protection is praised

CHILDREN in Suffolk are being successfully protected from abuse and neglect, according to a recent inspection report.

The Government body that inspects and rates the care and education services for children and young people praised Suffolk County Council's Children and Young People's service, following an unannounced Ofsted (Office for Standards in Education, Children's Services and Skills) inspection carried out during July.

The inspection sampled the way in which Suffolk safeguards children and young people and particularly looked at the county council's impact on minimising any child abuse and neglect.

The report highlighted a number of strengths, such as the way in which staff use assessments to ensure a child's protection, which were regarded as being of a consistently high standard.

In addition to the strengths raised, the areas that were identified for development from last year's inspection had been successfully addressed.

Clr Graham Newman, Suffolk County Council's portfolio holder for children, schools and young people's services, said: "I am extremely pleased with the positive feedback received from Ofsted."

Prized bike one of 10 stolen in spate

BY JO DEEKS

Email: editorial@haverhillweeklynews.co.uk

BMX fan and mother-of-five Nikki Dunkley is 'gutted' that her prized bike has been stolen – one of 10 taken in a three-week spate of bicycle thefts in Haverhill.

The unusual Mongoose mountain bike was stolen from her back garden at Tower Court, Haverhill, while she was away on holiday. It was one of 10 taken in the town over a three-week spate of bicycle thefts in the town.

The bicycle is a distinctive midnight blue colour, with red handlebars, a picture of a naked lady on the frame and a brown saddle, with the word Mongoose written on it in cream letters. The bike is a limited-edition model worth about £500, which will be missed not only by Mrs Dunkley, 40, but also by her children, as well as their friends who often borrow it.

Mrs Dunkley said: "I am really upset about it. When I got back and it was not there I thought my friend had borrowed it, but when I saw her she had not used it. I love my bikes and everyone knows it because it is so distinctive and you cannot get them any more."

"I am gutted, I don't think I will get it back and I will have to get another one, but it will be a lot cheaper. I have often loaned it to one of my children or one of their friends who had not got a bike. I use my bike all the time and everyone around here knows it. I would really love to get it back."

Acting Sgt Will Wright of Haverhill Police urged people to lock up their bikes and if possible to keep them in a shed or garage out of sight.

He said: "It is a very distinctive bike and I believe someone must know something about it. This lady did loan it out to youngsters and it is a real shame that it has gone."

He said at least 10 bicycles had been stolen over the past three weeks in the town, most of them expensive BMX or mountain bikes.

Sgt Wright added: "We know that there have been other bikes taken but not reported. We would urge everyone to report these thefts so that we can get the big picture of what is happening."

Anyone with information about the bike should call Sgt Wright at Haverhill Police on (01284) 774100 or Crime-stoppers on 0800 555 111.

FAMILIES spread out their blankets for a picnic in the park – and enjoyed some entertainment while they were there.

The Picnic in the Park event at Haverhill's East Town Park was one of a series of free Wicked Wednesday events staged in partnership between St Edmundsbury Borough Council and Haverhill Town Council.

The fun continues on Wednesday when an ice rink will be provided at the Plaza in Ehringshausen Way and on Wednesday August 31, when a climbing wall will be provided at Haverhill Rovers Football Club in Chalkstone Way. Both activities are free and take place between 11am and 3pm.

Youths rob dog walker

A DOG walker was robbed of her handbag by two youths. The 43-year-old woman was walking her dog in the Puddlebrook Park area, Greenfields Way, Haverhill, last Thursday between 6.55pm and 7.10pm, when two boys grabbed her bag containing her BlackBerry Torch mobile and dog treats and made off. The boys are described as white and in their teens. One was riding a pink bike and was wearing a light-coloured hooded top and the other was on foot and was wearing a black hooded top. Anyone with information about the incident should call DC Jacquelin Mumford at West Suffolk CID on (01284) 774100 or Crimestoppers anonymously on 0800 555 111.

Crew called to car blaze

FIREFIGHTERS were called out to a car fire thought to have been started deliberately. Firefighters from Linton received reports of the blaze near to Castle Camps at 8.44pm on Saturday. They managed to get the fire under control at 9.23pm using one hose reel.

THREE weeks of summer fun came to an end this week at a party day, to which parents and friends were invited.

The annual Summer Fun Play Scheme, which has been operating for more than 20 years, was held at Castle Manor School in Haverhill, catering for children aged from four to 13. Activities included golf, football, archery and other sport; a rodeo bull, music and flower-arranging workshops, Scottish dancing, visits from flying birds and reptiles and wacky Olympics.

The final party day last Thursday included a visit from a fire engine and local police officer, a coconut shy, jousting and a 50ft slide, as well as popcorn and candy floss for the children.

Tesco can build collection point

BY JO DEEKS

Email: editorial@haverhillweeklynews.co.uk

PLANS to put up a customer shopping collection point in a supermarket car park have been approved – despite objections.

Tesco will create the 'pod' at its store in Cangle Road, Haverhill, using 11 parking spaces at the eastern end of the car park, after receiving approval from St Edmundsbury Borough Council's development control committee.

Cllr Gordon Cox, the ward councillor for St Edmundsbury Borough Council, opposed the plan as he considered it discriminatory to disabled people or pedestrians. A letter of objection was also received from a local resident concerned that the proposal would result in more anti-social behaviour, while Haverhill Town Council also raised a number of concerns.

Cllr Cox wrote: "It does not seem to accommodate or make any allowance for pedestrians or disabled individuals in wheelchairs and the like, who would wish to participate in this new venture."

But the Tesco agent's supporting statement said that the building would have disabled access and be available for pedestrian use.

Town councillors felt that the collection point could have an adverse effect on the town centre encouraging people to 'pick up' by car and not bother going into town to do other shopping. They were also concerned about the safety of pedestrians while vehicles were transferring goods in the car park and security problems with young people using the building as a shelter, which could exacerbate problems the store had already had with young people, especially at night.

"The massing of a building in the car park would be an eyesore and not sympathetic to the surroundings area. Councillors were also concerned about the impact on the surrounding houses and environment," a letter from the town council said.

A resident from Vange Place said: "The existing car park was used as a congregation place and it is intimidating to cross the car park, especially in the dark. The erection of a building with a canopy will provide a covered meeting area for such people when it is not operating."

In recommending approval, the St Edmundsbury planning officer said issues of anti-social behaviour were noted, but were not a material planning consideration. Tesco employs security staff who would patrol the car park at night. The plan should reduce the number of customers visiting the main store and not result in increased vehicle movements.

The Click and Collect service involves customers ordering their goods online and paying with a credit card, which must be produced at the collection point.

County high for teacher training

NEW teachers in Suffolk are benefiting from some of the best training in the country, according to a national guide.

A primary school teaching training scheme, run by Suffolk and Norfolk County Councils and University Campus Suffolk, has been judged the ninth best in the country in the Buckingham University Good Teacher Training Guide 2011.

The Suffolk and Norfolk Primary School Centred Initial Teacher Training (SCITT) was joined in the top 10 by five universities, including Oxford and Cambridge.

Carol Nind, course leader, said: "It is terrific to receive this recognition.

"It has been very much a team effort in building the quality of our teacher training year on year.

"It is flattering to be in the top 10 alongside the bigger players like Oxford and Cambridge Universities."

The training scheme had 53 trainees during the last academic year, with more than half qualifying with a grade of outstanding. Of these 53 trainees 41 continue to teach in schools throughout Suffolk.

Primary SCITT is one of a number of programmes running in the county. To find out more visit www.snitt.co.uk.

Car dealers set to uncork the bubbly

CHAMPAGNE and disco music are being offered to VIP customers at a car dealership.

Vauxhall retailer, Drive Haverhill, is pulling out all the stops to spoil its customers with two VIP events from today to Sunday and from Thursday, August 25 to Sunday, August 28.

At its premises in Duddery Hill, customers will be invited to enjoy champagne and nibbles. Everyone who orders a car on the day will receive a free satellite navigation system.

New DIY store opens its doors

To see you nice: B&Q store manager Simon Phillips, with staff members.

Picture: Keith Jones 761254.

A NEW DIY store is open for business as Haverhill moves on from the closure of its predecessor.

B&Q Haverhill opened on Friday, replacing Focus after it went into administration earlier this summer.

The site in Cambridge Road Retail Park, Park Road, took almost six weeks of preparation to be ready before its first customer cut the ribbon and the doors opened to the public for the first time.

The new store will be run by Simon Phillips and his mixture of former Focus staff and new employees all wearing the orange of B&Q.

Mr Phillips will manage about 45 staff at the new premises. Some 21 former Focus employees are on the B&Q payroll.

He told the Weekly News after the opening: "It went brilliantly. "It was really busy with lots of people coming to find out what we offer. The interest prior to opening was also widespread across Haverhill and the surrounding area.

"The main difference between the new store and Focus beforehand is the show range department we have, with a wide range of kitchen and bathroom displays.

"To mark our opening we are having a range of activities for the community across the next two weeks on site, ending with the official launch during the bank holiday weekend."

The celebration will take place on Saturday, August 27 with Matthew Hancock, MP for Haverhill.

The store is also planning to work with the charity UK Youth to help transform an area in its youth centre with the help of volunteers from the store.

Youths urged to speak out

YOUNG people are to be encouraged to come forward and talk to a town council which is considering forming a youth forum to give them a voice.

Haverhill Town Council has formed a steering group to look into the idea, led by Cllr Roger Andre, which will report back to the full council.

Gordon Mussett, Haverhill town clerk, said councillors were aware that there was an element of disaffected youth in the town, not working or in education, who were very difficult to engage with.

Mr Mussett said: "This is a new approach. There is lots of money being spent on activities for young people, but they may not necessarily be hitting the spot. It is an attempt to try and engage with young people of all abilities and categories.

"It is to inform the town council of what they are looking for and try to bring them back into the community. A lot of young people are perhaps disenchanted with life, with no job, no future and not much happening to them. It is about trying to get them involved and how they can make things happen for their age group."

Pair sought after purse snatched

A WOMAN'S purse was stolen from her bag while she was travelling on a double-decker bus arriving at a bus station.

The incident involving the 24-year-old victim happened at the Brook service road in Haverhill at about 5.35pm on Monday.

It is believed that a man and a woman were responsible for the theft. The woman is described as white, aged 30 to 35, of medium build, with shoulder-length blonde hair tied in a ponytail, a freckly face, scars on her arms and wearing a long-sleeved beige top and jeans.

The man is described as white, aged 30 to 35, of slim build, with short mousy hair shaved at the sides and wearing a blue t-shirt with a pattern on the front and three-quarter length trousers. He had a tattoo on his left calf.

Calls in relation to the incident should be made to PC Jane Mangnall on (01284) 774100 or Crimestoppers on 0800 555 111.

The eyes have it as baby Tia steps out into the world

RARE baby mongoose lemur Tia is venturing out to meet the public at the zoo where she was born.

Her birth created a ripple of excitement throughout the zoo world as there are very few of the creatures in captivity and they are officially ranked as vulnerable by the IUCN Red List, with numbers rapidly decreasing in the wild.

A special European breeding programme aimed at saving them from total extinction is managed at Linton Zoo, where Tia was born in May.

Kim Simmons, zoo director, said: "Linton Zoo is very proud to successfully breed this wonderful lemur again. This baby is the first born in the captive population for more than four years. Both mum Maggie, aged 16, and 21-year-old dad Henry are clearly pleased with the new arrival.

"Megan, their five-year-old daughter is as excited as any sibling would be. She too is helping out with the daily care of her new sister and as well as having a boisterous new play mate, she is gaining lots of essential parental skills ready for when she too becomes a mum."

All lemur species are from Madagascar, an island off the East coast of Africa, where numbers are in decline. Lemurs shot to fame in the animated film Madagascar, because of which they are often referred to as 'the dancing monkeys'.

However, Lemurs are prosimians, a group of mammals which are defined as being primates but not monkeys or apes.

Doting keepers called the new baby Tia, meaning 'to love' in Malagasy. The 12-week-old can now be seen clambering around her enclosure getting up to all sorts of mischief.

Linton Zoo is well known for its lemurs, with five different species kept, and visitors can take part in a VIP tour of the Rare Lemur Breeding Centre. These can be booked on most days throughout the summer holidays or during a special charity fundraising evening tomorrow. For more information, visit www.lintonzoo.com or call (01223) 891308.

Peek-a-boo: 12-week-old Tia is ready to meet zoo fans.

Zoo plans its wild nights

WILD nights out after the visitors have left will be taking place at a zoo.

The first special charity fundraising evening will be held at Linton Zoo tomorrow from 6.30pm-9.30pm, when visitors can join staff to see the zoo in the very different setting.

A spokesman said: "The whole feel of the zoo changes once visitors have gone home and rather than keep this magical time to ourselves we'd like to share it with you."

Events during the night will include VIP tours of the rare Lemur Breeding Centre. There will be just 30 places available for the evening at £10 per person.

The keeper team, also be joined by special guests Ventura Events who will be bringing along some extra furry friends. Say hello to Nelson the Meerkat, Percy the Python, Dusk the Barn Owl and many more. Visitors can have their picture taken with one of the animals.

Watch the younger pair of African lions, Safina and Zuri, have their dinner and see Katinka the Amur tiger go fishing for her food at the big cat feeds.

Other activities will include moth surveying and photography clinic with Colin Edwards. There will also be stalls and a car boot sale outside the zoo entrance for which entry is free and pitches are available. Reduced-price zoo entry tickets can be pre-booked at £5.40 adults, £3 children 2-13 years, on (01223) 891308 or email lintonzoo@hotmail.co.uk.

Cat lovers go to the rescue

RSPCA is swamped by offer of homes

BY JO DEEKS

Email: editorial@haverhillweeklynews.co.uk

CAT lovers have come up trumps again by providing homes for dozens of abandoned pets.

Earlier this month, the local RSPCA branch had warned that its centre was close to breaking point, with a huge influx of unwanted kittens descending on its door.

A large number of animals had been dumped either with their mother or born while in the charity's care in Haverhill and surrounding towns and villages over recent weeks.

Typically the RSPCA West Suffolk branch deals with only a handful of cats each month, but earlier this month had a staggering 40 – many just a few days old – being looked after by officers.

Following an appeal in the Weekly News, many of the cats were found new homes and the RSPCA was delighted with the fantastic and we managed to find homes for all the Haverhill cats we had in, which for us is fantastic."

The charity had reached crisis point across the region, unable to take in more cats until homes were found for those already rescued.

A spokesman for the RSPCA said: "Normally we get a rise in the autumn, but to have it so soon and so large is shocking.

"In one day alone we had a mother cat and kitten dumped in all the major towns we cover.

"I think this is happening because people can't sell cats anymore and they are chucking them rather than getting them neutered – but we can do this for free.

"I have been doing this for 11 years and this is the worst situation I have seen."

Anyone interested in offering a cat or kitten a new home is urged to contact the RSPCA West Suffolk Branch on 0845 2000287 or by visiting www.rspcasuffolk.org.uk.

Thanks for helping cats

Sir, the RSPCA West Suffolk Branch would like to thank everyone who supported our recent appeal to find new homes for a large number of kittens and cats in our care.

We would really like to thank your publication for all the coverage you gave us, as your readers responded in their droves to our appeal.

We have rehomed all our kittens and a large number of adult cats as well. And some of the smaller kittens, which are not ready to leave, have also been reserved. A truly amazing result.

Please can we say a huge thank-you to everyone who came forward to offer homes; we really do appreciate all your help and support.

It is thanks to the generosity of the media and the public that we have been able to help more animals in need.

We just hope that people will continue to support us again in the future.

Many thanks from everyone at the RSPCA West Suffolk Branch.

A DISTRAUGHT family are worried their pet tortoise may have been stolen after he made a slow getaway from their back garden.

Bugsy, a Hermann tortoise, escaped from his pen in the garden of his home in Streetly End, West Wickham, when the gate was open.

He has been known to escape before but he has always returned so the Cameron family, who own him, fear he may have been picked up or stolen by a passer-by.

BY EMILY NICE

Email: editorial@haverhillweeklynews.co.uk

Bugsy has medical problems and the family say it is unlikely he will survive over the winter if he is not found. He needs a low-protein diet or he might suffer kidney problems.

The 25-year-old pet has not been seen since July 28 and the family are now offering a £50 reward for his safe return.

Lucy Cameron, 42, her husband Malcolm and their three children Eve, 13, Charlie 11 and Mae, 6, have owned Bugsy for five years and say he is a much-loved member of the family.

Lucy said: "He has escaped before but has never got very far. We think someone may have picked him up to try and care for him, but he is very susceptible to dietary changes, so if he is fed the wrong food he could become very ill.

"He also cannot be fed after October as this is when he needs to stop eating to go into hibernation and to drink he needs to be placed in a bowl of water."

The tortoise has been micro-chipped and so if he is taken to any vet they will be able to scan him and track down the family.

Lucy added: "We all miss him dearly; all the children have spent every day of their summer holidays searching for him but our biggest concern is his welfare."

Bugsy is about 18cm in diameter and mainly a brown/tan colour.

If you think you may have seen him, you can contact the family can via lucy.cameron@virgin.net.

Rape accused goes before judge

CHARGES of raping a schoolboy and indecent assaults were faced by a man who appeared at Ipswich Crown Court on Tuesday.

Benjamin Waldron, 37, of Strawberry Fields, Haverhill, is charged with two offences of raping of a boy aged under 13 at Haverhill between May 2004 and December 2009.

He also faces three charges of sexual assault by touching involving a boy aged under 13 in Haverhill and elsewhere between May 2004 and December 2007. During a brief preliminary hearing, Judge David Goodin told Waldron that he would be brought back to court on October 21, when he would be asked to plead not guilty or guilty to the charges against him.

Waldron, whose solicitor Lyndon Davies had indicated at a previous hearing in the magistrates' court that he would be denying all the charges, had his conditional bail extended until his next court appearance.

Police linking theft of drain covers

DRAIN covers were stolen overnight in two Haverhill streets.

Police are linking the theft of four metal drain covers from the Brook service road in Haverhill and another four from nearby Lordscroft Lane, opposite the leisure centre car park.

The first theft took place between 10pm on Friday and 3.30pm on Saturday, with the second sometime during the same overnight period.

Calls in relation to these incidents should be made to PS Sarah Bartley at the Haverhill Safer Neighbourhood Team on (01284) 774100 or Crimestoppers anonymously on 0800 555 111.

Labrador goes on the attack

POLICE are trying to trace a dog which injured a woman who tried to stop it attacking her young pet.

The incident happened in Chalkstone Way, Haverhill between 10.45am and 11am on Monday.

A 46-year-old woman and her daughter were walking their young dog on the playing field by the new football club, when a brown labrador approached, not on a lead.

The victim picked up her dog to prevent the labrador from attacking it. The labrador jumped up at her, causing bruising and scratches to her arm and hip. Its owner then approached, took hold of the dog and walked off.

The owner of the labrador is described as a white man, aged about 40, stocky and wearing blue jeans, a black t-shirt with a number on the back and sunglasses. He is believed to be a regular dog walker.

Calls in relation to this incident should be made to PC Jason Thomas at the Haverhill Neighbourhood Response Team on 01284 774100 or Crimestoppers anonymously on 0800 555 111.

It was the second incident involving dogs in the area in a week. On Sunday, August 7 a couple were walking their terrier dog in Chalkstone Way when a white boxer dog with a couple and four children approached them. A verbal exchange took place between both couples and the man with the boxer dog pushed the couple with the terrier and tried to antagonise them.

Sponsors sought

MORE sponsors are need for an annual charity golf day which aims to raise thousands of pounds.

Money from the Havebury Housing event, now in its seventh year, will go towards the Bury St Edmunds branch of the MS Society, which supports people suffering from multiple sclerosis. The event is also in support of Focus 12, a drug and alcohol rehabilitation charity based in Bury St Edmunds.

Havebury Chief Executive Karen Mayhew said: "We have already got most of the teams in place but would still love to hear from organisations or businesses who want to enter a team or sponsor a hole. We are also looking for prizes for the raffle and items for the charity auction.

"The day always generates a huge amount of goodwill and is a lot of fun. It is also a great opportunity for networking as representatives from other local and national organisations will be attending."

Suits you, sir: Havebury operations director Philip Sullivan with Barry Taylor of the MS Society, who won last year's best-dressed golfer competition CP:

Havebury, which has offices in Haverhill and Bury St Edmunds, is dedicated to serving both the existing and future housing needs of people in West Suffolk and parts of Cambridge. A charity and not-for-profit association, it currently manages 6,000 homes.

The golf day takes place on Thursday, September 8 at the Suffolk Golf and Country Club in Fornham St Genevieve.

For further information, call the communications team on (01284) 722008.

More help for victims of abuse

MORE help will be provided to domestic violence victims across Suffolk thanks to a £300,000 Lottery grant.

The money will fund a women and children's well-being centre in the county for the next three years.

Sally Winston, chief executive of Lighthouse Women's Aid in Ipswich, said, "We are absolutely delighted that we have been able to secure this significant funding to support domestic violence victims across the county.

"The families that come to us need a tremendous amount of help and guidance. Without grants such as this one from the Big Lottery Fund, it would be impossible for us to offer the level of support that is available in Suffolk.

"We will now be able to continue to provide tangible support over the next three years in a variety of ways. The Wellbeing Centre, which will be based in Ipswich, will be open to all women across the county, not just women with specific domestic violence needs although this will always be our primary focus."

BY JO DEEKS

Email: editorial@haverhillweeklynews.co.uk

"This is a remarkable boost for the Lighthouse Women's Aid and comes just weeks after a decision by the Ministry of Justice to award a three-year grant of £370,000 to provide a court-based independent domestic violence advocate service across Suffolk.

"We have seen a 37 per cent increase in reported incidents of domestic abuse in Suffolk from 2006 to 2010 and this financial backing is critical to support victims of this dreadful crime."

The Wellbeing Centre will provide therapeutic sessions for women and children, life-skills courses, counselling and childcare facilities to support mums to attend groups. The centre is expected to open early next year.

Ipswich Lighthouse operates a 24-hour helpline on (01473) 745111, offering help and confidential advice to victim of domestic violence.

Government boost for broadband bid

BY JO DEEKS

Email: editorial@haverhillweeklynews.co.uk

SUPER-fast broadband coverage in Suffolk has received a major boost with £11 million in Government funding.

Suffolk's £41 million plans to build a super-fast broadband network across the county received backing from the Government, with the investment pledged by the Department for Culture, Media and Sport. It means Suffolk can move forward with its ambitious goal to create a broadband network fit for the 21st century.

It follows a decision by Suffolk County Council to invest up to £10 million in the project – a move which almost certainly proved crucial in securing the backing from the Government.

Looking to the future: Suffolk councillors, MPs, business and community leaders show their support for better broadband for Suffolk.

Picture: Suffolk County Council.

Cllr Mark Bee, Suffolk County Council's leader, said: "I'm ecstatic. From the day I was elected leader I've wanted this and have worked hard with all our partners to make it happen."

"Today is an important milestone in our ambition to create for Suffolk a broadband network fit for the 21st century. We can now crack on with the project and turn our ambition into a reality."

Delivering the £41.7 million project will help local businesses grow, improve educational attainment and remove a major block to public service transformation in Suffolk.

Suffolk currently has one of the poorest broadband networks in England. The average broadband speed currently experienced by Suffolk's consumers and small businesses is under 5Mbps.

The lack of good broadband coverage in the county is felt to have created a major constraint on business growth and a block on public service transformation.

Driving fun for women

WOMEN drivers who fancy getting behind the wheel of a fire engine or a tank can fulfil their ambition while raising money for charity. On Saturday, the Fire Fighters Charity will visit the former RAF Coltishall site to give women the chance to drive a variety of large and unusual vehicles, all donated by local businesses and the emergency services, in the 'Ladies' Driving Challenge'.

Members of Norfolk Fire & Rescue Service are helping to organise the event to raise money for the Fire Fighters Charity, which supports injured fire fighters and their families, and the British Red Cross.

The event is open to women of all ages who hold a current full manual driving licence. They pay a £10 a non-returnable registration fee and undertake to raise at least another £90 in sponsorship. If participants raise £120 they receive a souvenir t-shirt, if they raise £150 they receive a Blaze Bear and this year Tesco has donated a flat screen television for the top fundraiser on the day.

Tech fans enjoy appliance of science

How does this work?: technology lovers get to grips with hardware at the Hackers' Delight event in Haverhill.

A COMPUTING museum hosted a fun weekend event for technology fans.

The Centre for Computing History, based in Haverhill's High Street, partnered with MakeSpace to create Hackers Delight - The Weekender which took place at the town's Days Inn, in Hollands Road.

The event offered electronics gurus, software hackers, video-graphers, photographers, musicians and bloggers the chance to socialise and work on exciting projects to create exhibits and displays for the museum.

Workshops were held in the hotel reception area and function rooms, where guests got stuck into activities ranging from robotics to restoring retro arcade games.

There were also tours of the computing museum, which aims to capture the British computing revolution in Cambridge.

Simon Hewitt from the museum said: "Hacker's Delight was part of a major fundraising and awareness exercise for us and it went really well."

Friends rally round for mum

Picture: Duncan Lamont 762737.

FITNESS fans are limbering up for an all-day workout to raise cash to help buy a headstone for a baby who died aged just 19 weeks.

Callie Patten, 24, lost tiny Imogen last October after going into premature labour because of a lung infection which affected her and her baby.

Callie has attended zumba classes run by Hannah Oakley in Haverhill, and on Saturday, September 3 the class will hold a sponsored event at Haverhill Rovers ground in Chalkstone Way, to raise money for the headstone and for premature birth charity Bliss.

Callie, of Ladygate, Haverhill, had previously suffered from pre-eclampsia and went into premature labour with her first child Laci, 2, who was born at 36 weeks and weighed just over 5 pounds.

Callie is now 14 weeks

BY JO DEEKS

Email: editorial@haverhillweeklynews.co.uk

pregnant, and hoping to avoid giving birth early again. She said: "I haven't had a good pregnancy yet and I am just hoping to get past the critical stage this time. You always think you are safe past 12 weeks, but you are not always."

"Imogen is at Haverhill cemetery and I go there a lot. She has not got a headstone at present because they are very expensive, about £700-800, the writing alone costs £300. I speak to Hannah on Facebook a lot and when I said that we could not afford a headstone, she decided to do something about it.

"I have been doing zumba since January, but I am not going at the moment because of the pregnancy. It has really helped me because it is fun and helped me with how I was feeling. It caused us a lot of trouble because Laci has picked up on me being upset and become very clingy and boisterous.

"I was speechless when Hannah told me what they were going - you just cannot put into words what it means that someone would do that for you."

Hannah said: "I'm a mum myself and it is every parent's worst nightmare to lose a child, and then to not be able to afford to lay her to rest properly is horrific."

The event on September 3 will last from 11am to 3pm, and there will also be a family fun day with stalls, including cakes and face painting, as well as an auction for lots such as a signed Charlton football shirt. More donations of raffle prizes or auction lots would be welcome.

The first £1,000 raised will pay for Imogen's headstone and anything above that will go to BLISS. www.bliss.org.uk. People can donate by going to paypal, then 'send funds' to wingsofadove2010@hotmail.co.uk.

*Fuel saved per tank calculation is based upon TÜV SÜD automotive data (March 2009, Report # 76236753) on EfficientGrip which demonstrated a 1.9% fuel saving compared to the average of 4 competitors tested on VW Golf 1.9 TSI 150bhp tyre size 205/55R16. One full tank VW Golf 1.9 TSI 150bhp equals 55 litres. Potential fuel saving has been calculated as follows: 55 litres multiplied by 1.9% (average fuel saving gained) x £1.18 (cost of fuel taken from www.theaa.com) = £1.23 saving = price of an average litre. Calculated September 2010. For full TÜV SÜD Automotive information on Goodyear EfficientGrip tyres please visit www.goodyear.co.uk. APPROVED DEALER

On our way: Ipswich Building Society staff Kevin Davis, Wayne Hurrell, Alex Deal, Lester Blake and Ben Cousins are planning to walk from Haverhill to Ipswich – via Sudbury and Hadleigh – in aid of St Nicholas Hospice Care. 761035.

Lads step out for hospice funds

STAFF members at a building society have branded themselves The Unlikely Lads as they prepare for a long-distance cross-country walk in aid of their local hospice.

At the start of September, six members of staff at the Ipswich Building Society plan to walk across the Suffolk countryside as part of their bid to win the St Nicholas Hospice Care Towergate Accumulator Challenge, which sees 49 firms battle it out to turn a £50 stake into as much cash as possible.

The all-male group – who say they have no previous experience or passion for long-distance walking – will trek between Ipswich Building Society branches in Haverhill and at Tower Ramparts, in Ipswich, calling in at Sudbury and Hadleigh on the way. They will cover the 38-mile distance with one overnight stop.

The Unlikely Lads are Kevin Davis, who works at Haverhill, Wayne Hurrell, of Sudbury and Haverhill branches, Alex Deal, of Hadleigh branch, Lester Blake and Ben Cousins, of the Ipswich Tower Ramparts branch and Paul Millar, who covers all four branches. They will set off from Haverhill at 9am on Friday, September 2 and aim to finish at the Tower Ramparts branch in the afternoon of September 3.

Kevin Davis said: "With Lester falling off a ladder recently, Wayne complaining of a dodgy knee and some of us having, shall we say, a questionable level of fitness, we realise this may not be a straightforward journey.

"This is a personal challenge for all six of us but we hope donations will pull us through."

The lads are aiming to raise sponsorship from society members, staff and families. Donations can be accepted at all branches, or sponsor the team online at www.justgiving.com/branchwalk.

Group asks: 'could you be a friend?'

MORE volunteers are needed to pay a visit to elderly people who may be alone all week.

Haverhill Volunteer Centre and Age UK Suffolk have teamed up to work with volunteers who are able to offer some time out of their week to visit elderly residents living in the Haverhill area.

The volunteers visit isolated and housebound residents to provide companionship, the chance to develop a new relationship and opportunities to participate in social activities.

Users of the scheme appreciate the fact that the volunteer is a person who chooses to spend time with them, rather than being under a professional or family obligation to do so.

Volunteers working on the befriending project are all CRB-checked and are offered training in a variety of skills that will help with befriending an elderly person.

Elaine Hewes manager of the Volunteer Centre, said: "We consider the matching up of the volunteer and the user to be the key to a successful matching, as it is based on shared interests and on both parties living in the same area.

BY JO DEEKS

Email: editorial@haverhillweeklynews.co.uk

"There are a large number of elderly residents living alone who look forward to a visit from a friendly person once a week. Once the volunteer has been matched with an elderly resident, the volunteer will make arrangements to visit at a time that suits both parties.

"The Volunteer Centre is here to support the volunteer and ensure that both parties are happy with the visiting arrangements.

"This is a valuable part of volunteering and a positive experience for all involved. One of our elderly residents, who has a visitor once a week, has said that she quite often does not see a single person from one visit to the next."

Anyone who knows of an elderly person who would like a visitor, or who would like to register as a befriender, contact the Volunteer Centre on (01440) 708444 or email info@hvc.org.uk.

Pub date: Simon Fanshawe is set to attend the charity drive in October.

TV frontman at fundraiser

A TV presenter, comedian and writer is to speak at a dinner dance and auction in aid of a local charity.

Simon Fanshawe, a regular panellist on Question Time, and Sky News, will be one of the major draws at the grand event behalf of St Nicholas Hospice Care at The Hundon Plough Inn.

The village venue will host the gala evening on Friday, October 14, featuring a three-course meal, live music from nine-piece big band The Slicknotes and a charity auction with lots donated by businesses and individuals from the area.

So far, lots include a London weekend break for two with a top West End show thrown in, donated by Mansol Preforms from Haverhill, and a signed and framed Arsenal shirt as well as a Christmas dinner hamper donated by Kedington Butchers, of Westward Deals.

Tickets are on sale now from the Plough Inn, costing £400 for a table of 10. A limited number of sponsorship packages are also available and lots are still needed for the auction. For details and to buy tickets, contact Kate Wood at the Plough on (01440) 786789.

Town bids farewell to stalwart Frank

AFTER many years of campaigning for the interests of pensioners, 91-year-old Frank Bradsell has attended his last town council meeting before moving away.

Mr Bradsell received a small farewell presentation from Haverhill mayor Maureen Byrne as he went along to his last town council meeting before moving to Redditch, near Birmingham.

Mr Bradsell is leaving his home in Roman Way to move to a sheltered housing community near to his niece.

For many years the chairman of Haverhill's Pensioner's Association, Mr Bradsell later found himself a lone voice in campaigner for a better deal for pensioners.

He has continued to regularly attend town council meetings and has been critical at times of the procedures followed and some of the decisions made.

Mr Bradsell said: "I recently ended up in hospital with pneumonia and my niece has been asking me to move nearer to her for some time.

"I still do all my own shopping and cooking, but I thought perhaps it is time to move to somewhere with a bit of help provided.

"I am sad to be leaving I have enjoyed my time in the town. I expect some of them will be pleased to see me go, but I have always believed in speaking out and saying what I think, especially if I think something is not right.

"The general public don't seem to care about what is going on these days, which is a real shame."

Purse thefts spark new crime alert

POLICE have issued a renewed warning to shoppers after two women's purses were stolen on the same day.

Officers are linking the two thefts which happened in Haverhill High Street on Monday, August 8. In the first incident a 24-year-old woman was shopping in the town when her purse was stolen from within her handbag. The second incident involved a 78-year-old woman who was shopping in the town when her wallet containing her pension book, savings book and cash was stolen from a plastic bag on top of her shopping trolley.

Calls in relation to these incidents should be made to PC Matthew Hammill at the Haverhill Neighbourhood Response Team on (01284) 774100 or Crimestoppers anonymously on 0800 555 111. People are asked to ensure that their belongings are secure and out of sight at all times when out and about.

Purse chains/alarms are available from local crime reduction officers on (01284) 774100.

Centre will be in bloom

BEAUTIFUL floral displays will grace Haverhill Arts Centre this weekend at an annual competition.

Haverhill and District Flower Club's annual show at the centre in the High Street will be officially opened by mayor Maureen Byrne and deputy mayor of St Edmundsbury Cllr Terence Buckle at 12.30pm tomorrow.

Competition will be keen as the entries are judged in the morning, before the show is opened to the public. Entry is free and the colourful displays will be on show to visitors from 12.30pm-5pm on Friday and 9.30am to 4pm on Saturday.

The club has operating for close to 50 years and meets at Haverhill Arts Centre on the first Monday of the month, with visitors always welcome.

At each meeting there is a NAFAS demonstrator and the floral displays created are raffled at the end of the evening.

Hundreds flock to racecourse for a glimpse back in time Tribute to the age of steam

ROWS of gleaming steam engines lined up for the annual Thurlow Steam and Country Show at the weekend.

The event was held at Horseheath racecourse on Saturday and Sunday, and organisers estimated about 2,200 visitors attended over the two days.

They were entertained by demonstrations of giant steam engines in action, as well as sheepdog displays with Amy Rouse.

There were also many model steam engines, vintage vehicles and tractors, organs and bygones, as well as trade and craft stalls.

Michael Pumfrey, the event organiser, said the event was expected to have raised in the region of £3,000 to be distributed to local charities. He added: "The attendance was slightly down on previous years, but not massively so. We had a little rain on Saturday morning, but apart from that it was dry and everything went off as planned. It was a good turnout and we were very pleased with it."

Fill her up: Les Vince stands astride a Burrell steam traction engine, built in 1900 while spectators, above, get a close view of the monsters from yesteryear.

Just sit back and relax...

Rock legends, stage and screen icons, comedy heroes and family favourites will all be competing to lure you away from the telly between now and Christmas. Here, we select the best of September's offerings in Cambridge

■ Hard-Fi

The Junction, Thursday, September 22. Contact (01223) 511511/www.junction.co.uk

HARD-FI's debut album, 2005's Stars of CCTV, sold more than a million copies and earned the band nominations for everything from the Brits to the Mercury Music Prize. Follow-up Once Upon A Time In the West also debuted at number one and now, after a three-year hiatus, the four-piece are back with Killer Sounds, due for release on August 19.

■ Alan Carr

Cambridge Corn Exchange, Thursday/Friday, September 1/2. Contact (01223) 357851/www.cornex.co.uk.

AFTER several years spent rubbing shoulders with A-listers, Chatty Man Carr returns to his comedy roots with a new stand-up show, Spexy Beast, his first major tour in four years.

■ Jack Whitehall

The Junction, Saturday, September 10. Contact (01223) 511511/www.junction.co.uk.

JACK Whitehall (the well-spoken one who went to school with Robert Pattinson) is proving one of our brightest rising stars, having already guest hosted Never Mind the Buzzcocks and performed at the Royal Variety Show.

His latest show, Let's Not Speak of This Again, considers the many mistakes we make in life over and over again.

CHAT UP LINES: Alan Carr comes to Cambridge for two nights next month

■ Buddy

Cambridge Corn Exchange, September 12-17. Contact (01223) 357851/www.cornex.co.uk.

SEEN by more than 20 million people so far, the hugely successful rock 'n' roll musical returns for another run, telling the story of Buddy Holly from his meteoric rise to fame to his last performance at The Surf Ballroom in Iowa, and that tragic, final flight into immortality along with Ritchie Valens and the Big Bopper. Expect all the favourite hits, including That'll Be The Day, Peggy Sue, Oh Boy and more.

■ Real Dracula

ADC Theatre, September 20-24. Contact (01223) 300085/www.adctheatre.com.

INSPIRED by true events, this modern-day vampire story follows a young British teacher who falls in love with a Romanian girl who, when she falls mysteriously ill, moves him to consider drastic measures to ensure her survival.

Real Dracula is the latest product of the Cambridge-based company which brought the acclaimed Wilde In New York to the ADC last year.

Top comic is OK with Peter

DESCRIBED by Peter Kay as "one of the funniest friends I've got", Jason Manford has established himself as one of the modern masters of observational comedy.

The chirpy Mancunian, who comes to Cambridge on Saturday, began gigging in his home town as a teenager, getting his first big break when he filled in for a comedian who hadn't shown up at the Buzz Comedy Club, to great success. A Perrier Award nomination followed in 2005, opening the door to numerous television appearances, including the team captain role on 8 Out Of 10 Cats and, of course, his year as presenter on The One Show.

Now, Manford is back on the road with his Off On Tour We Go tour, stopping by the Corn Exchange. For further information and to book, contact (01223) 357851 / www.cornex.co.uk.

Busk after dusk

JOIN the Big Sunday Busk at D'arry's in Cambridge, which takes place every Sunday from 7pm until 9.30pm. This Sunday, the King Street eatery hosts Ted Koeherst and Graham Buxton, who will be playing a set of melodic pop. For more information or to glance over the menu, contact (01223) 505015 / info@darrys.co.uk.

Church recital

SAM Hayes, director of music at Great St Mary's Church, Cambridge, will give an organ recital at St Mary and St Michael Church on Grantchester Road tomorrow night. Entry is £5 (£3 students, £1 children) and the concert starts at 7.30pm. It will be followed by a wine reception, which is included in the price of the ticket. For further details, contact (01223) 846096. There will also be an organ recital at Ely Cathedral on Sunday, starting at 5.15pm. Contact (01353) 660349.

Sir Ian makes stage return

THE great Sir Ian McKellen will return to the city where he made his stage debut to launch Cambridge Arts Theatre's prestigious autumn season with a new version of Eduardo de Filippo's dark tale of mafia lords in post-war Naples, The Syndicate.

"The Cambridge Arts was the first professional theatre I ever worked in, as an unpaid undergraduate 50 years ago," says McKellen, who has flown back from Middle Earth (well, New Zealand, where he's filming The Hobbit) for the play's short tour.

In the play, Don Antonio rules the Naples underbelly with a rod of iron, providing a form of rough justice for the criminals of the city who have no other access to the law. When a respectable but poor young man decides to murder his father, he visits Don Antonio for advice. The Neapolitan 'Godfather' emerges from the shadows to make the young man's father an offer he can't refuse.

Kids' fun and films at centre

NORWICH Puppet Theatre and Banyan Theatre bring Thumbelina, a puppet show suitable for ages 2 to 6, to Haverhill Arts Centre on Thursday August 25 at 11am. Follow the extraordinary tale of her adventures and her ultimate happiness in the kingdom of the flowers in the 40-minute show. With live mixing from Jake Duffy, Alex Nagy, Ben Ashcroft and Harvey Bavester and hosted by John Firman, Dubfunk, only the best in electronic music, takes place on Thursday August 25 from 7.30pm to 11.30pm. Suitable for ages 16-plus, this is a non-alcoholic event; proof of age may be required.

On the cinema front this week, Reel Culture film Mammoth (15) starring Gerard Depardieu is showing at 7.45pm on Monday August 22. Films for the children include Diary of a Wimpy Kid - Roderick Rules (U) showing on Tuesday August 23 at 10.30am and 2.30pm. Kung Fu Panda 2 (2D) on Friday August 26 at 10.30am and 2.30pm sees Po, the bamboo-chewing, butt-kicking panda with attitude, and now a certified kung-fu master, back to protect his beloved Valley of Peace from the evil Lord Shen. The First Grader (12A), the true story of an 84-year-old Kenyan villager and ex Mau Mau freedom fighter who fights for his right to go to school for the first time to get the education he could never afford, is showing on Wednesday August 24 at 7.45pm.

The big film

RISE OF THE PLANET OF THE APES certificate 12a 104m

MAN learns a harsh lesson about meddling with nature in Rupert Wyatt's splendid new chapter in the Planet Of The Apes saga.

Drawing elements from different films in the original series, Rise Of The Planet Of The Apes takes advantage of the latest technological wizardry to deliver a thrilling adventure that doesn't skimp on heartbreaking emotion.

Wyatt orchestrates some breathtaking set pieces, including a climactic scene of apes on the rampage that unfolds at dizzying speed, seamlessly melding digital and live action elements.

However, beneath the pyrotechnics there beats a human heart, not least in the character of Caesar the ape, brought majestically to life using the same motion capture technology as Gollum in Lord Of The Rings. Scientist Will Rodman (James Franco) is determined to find a cure for Alzheimer's, the disease which has slowly consumed his father Charles (John Lithgow).

Will feels certain he is close to a breakthrough and tests his latest serum on chimpanzees, noticing dramatic increases in intelligence in the primates. However, Will's profit-driven boss, Steven Jacobs (David Oyelowo), demands the project be shut down and the test animals slaughtered.

Will smuggles a baby chimp called Caesar out of the lab and raises it with his father. As the years pass and Caesar blossoms, Will falls in love with veterinarian Caroline Aranha (Freida Pinto), who is stunned by Will's ability to communicate with the chimpanzee.

Caroline warns Will that he cannot keep Caesar as a pet forever.

Rise Of The Planet Of The Apes marries present and past, gifting the most iconic line ("get your filthy paws off me you damn dirty ape!") to Tom Felton, playing a sadistic keeper at an ape sanctuary.

Scenes between Franco and Lithgow are beautifully judged and the interaction between the two men and the digitally-rendered Caesar is surprisingly moving.

The daughters of the soil

by Hannah Stephenson

WHILE many of us will be sunning ourselves abroad this summer, TV gardener Chris Beardshaw will be out in the garden with his three daughters, sowing, digging and insect-hunting.

The award-winning garden designer and broadcaster, a regular on BBC Two's Gardeners' World and Radio 4's Gardeners' Question Time, says the long school summer holidays are an ideal time to introduce children to the wonders of the garden and make them more ecologically aware.

Beardshaw, who runs his own design business, gives talks and lectures across the UK, works with schools to facilitate outdoor landscapes and runs his own mentoring scholarship, will be spending time at his home in Gloucester to encourage his children to get their hands dirty.

"Some things are straightforward like sowing seeds of short-term crops such as lettuces and rocket which will be cropping before the end of the summer holidays, but it's also good to sow things that are more long-term. We've planted apple trees and are anticipating our first crop of apples."

Explaining the way in which different flowers attract different insects is an ideal way to engage children, he observes.

"One of the things which stimulate children is the way in which the floral elements of the garden attract organisms such as bees, butterflies and other insects. Of course, it's great to explain the way in which different insects are attracted to different flowers.

"Try to get the children to understand that the shape of the flower is largely going to dictate the type of insect that's going to be visiting. Tubular flowers tend to attract insects with long tongues, such as long-tongued bees, butterflies and moths.

"The flatter flowers from the daisy family, such as echinacea, are much better for shorter-tongued insects such as the honey bee."

For a bit of fun, you can buy online a listening device for bats, which are likely to be in the neighbourhood harvesting midges and moths on the wing at night.

"To bring the garden to life at night is extraordinary. We had a lovely moon last night and ventured out before the kids went to bed and just stood and listened to what was going on."

Many veg, whether root or leaf crops, can be used as a salad crop, he notes.

"We sowed all of last year's seed which hadn't been previously sown, all mixed together, in one redundant area of the garden and harvested the leaves – nasturtiums, carrots and bulls blood beet leaf can all be cut and used as a quick salad crop within four to six weeks. And there's nothing wrong with letting those crops grow on to harvest young vegetables.

"Sowing has traditionally been thought of as a spring activity, but there's no reason why you can't sow all year round, using the tops of lemonade bottles or cloches to protect young seedlings."

Beardshaw, who is involved with a variety of schools' initiatives, says the number of children becoming involved in gardening is on the rise because of an increased awareness through schools and everyday reading matter which points to the importance of five-a-day and food sources.

Garden shows often have points of interest for children, such as the Chester Zoo garden at the recent RHS Tatton Park show in Cheshire, which was based on a dinosaur theme complete with a model dinosaur, along with four football-themed gardens.

"Many more schools are getting involved in using their external environment as a green classroom. For a relatively modest investment, you get a huge return in school gardens.

"When I was a child, I was told that it was only remedial students who studied horticulture and gardening. How things have changed."

Among the most popular gardening jobs among kids is composting, he reflects, and it's never too late to start your own compost heap.

"Children are fascinated by composting, probably because it involves a little bit of decomposition, muck, smelly stuff, insects and worms. It's something they can literally get their fingers in to and allows them to start to appreciate the importance of looking after soil."

Others may simply enjoy collecting leaves and flowers to make into collages, or building logpiles to attract a variety of insects.

"Let the grass grow a little longer to allow some of the clovers, daisies, dandelions and ajugas to come through because looking at even the smallest section of grass which you've allowed to grow long, you see all sorts of insects and invertebrates crawling around there."

Don't feel that you have to spend all day and every day lecturing the children about nature – or it will seem like an extremely long summer break.

"The most important thing is to get children outside to find their own entertainment," he says.

Picanto 3-door

Long-awaited Kia due in two weeks

FOLLOWING on from the recent launch of the all-new Picanto city car Kia is introducing a three-door version to the line-up for the first time since the model appeared in 2004.

The distinctively styled three-door version, with a new range of trim levels, will go on sale in the UK from September 1.

The three-door Picanto has a unique, sporty character which delivers stronger performance with lower fuel consumption and CO2 emissions than the five-door. If the five-door Picanto is "the small car, grown up", then the three-door is the same but with a twinkle in its eye.

Globally, the market for Picanto-sized cars in 2014 will be around 2.4 million. By 2015 – well within the second-generation Picanto's life cycle – that will have grown to 3.3 million. Around a million of these will be three-door cars. In the UK, the importance of the three-door car is even more pronounced: the sales split between body styles in the A-segment is a slender 55:45 in favour of five-door models.

The three-door Picanto offers brand-new 1.0- and 1.25-litre Kappa-family petrol engines, which deliver fuel economy of up to 67.3mpg with CO2 emissions as low as 99g/km. The larger engine is available with Kia's EcoDynamics fuel-saving technology – an Intelligent Stop & Go engine stop/start system – or, alternatively, with automatic transmission.

The three-cylinder 1.0-litre unit develops 68bhp and 95Nm of torque. The 1.25-litre four-cylinder engine is offered in three guises, all developing 84bhp and 121Nm of torque. In standard form it averages 60.1mpg. With a four-speed automatic transmission fuel consumption is an impressive 53.3mpg. Finally, there is the EcoDynamics version with fuel consumption at 65.7mpg.

Picanto three-door is offered in four trim specifications: 1, 1 Air, Halo and Equinox. The 1 and 1 Air carry over from the five-door and offer buyers a great value specification whilst the Halo and Equinox are new to the range.

"We have been amazed at the huge amount of interest in the new five-door and very pleased with the amount of orders taken since its launch last month," said EMG Motor Group's general manager Kevin Driscoll. "It certainly seems to have inspired the Cambridge population into buying into the Kia brand with its seven-year warranty and that will continue I'm sure with the sporty looking three-door."

Prices start at £7,795 for the 1.0 '1' and peak at £12,295 for the 1.25 'Halo' Auto.

Looking good: Cambridge Saab's service experience.

Cambridge Saab site renovated

CAMBRIDGE Saab has enhanced its customer service experience following the renovation of its Aftersales Centre in Trumpington.

Situated on Shelford Road, the dealership has reopened after an £80,000 investment to refurbish the site.

The new-look Aftersales Centre offers customers in Cambridge the full range of Saab servicing facilities, including parts, accessories and MOT testing.

Until September 30, the dealership is offering a complimentary MOT test to members of Saab's Service Club. Call (01223) 873660 or go to www.cambridgesaab.co.uk.

4x4 demand at all-time high

THE demand for new 4x4 vehicles has reached an all-time high, according to new research by Motoring.co.uk.

Over the last 12 months, there has been a 35 per cent increase in motorists searching for new 4x4s, while new superminis have seen a 30 per cent drop in searches and new hatchbacks have fallen by 12 per cent. This is despite the highest fuel prices on record, escalating insurance premiums and rising motoring costs.

This rise in demand for 4x4 vehicles is partly due to the fact that car manufacturers have addressed the concerns among car buyers over fuel efficiency and the environment. A good example of this is the new Range Rover Evoque which has already stacked up more than 20,000 pre-orders before it becomes available later this year.

The Range Rover Evoque 3dr Coupe 2.2-litre diesel with 190bhp and CO2 emissions of 169g/km as an example model, averages a very respectable 44mpg. It is a sensational looking vehicle and is, by far, the most cutting-edge design that has been produced in the 4x4 sector by any manufacturer for many years.

The Range Rover Evoque: Averages a very respectable 44mpg.

The new Jeep Grand Cherokee: Big demand.

Chris Green, co-founder and sales director of Motoring.co.uk, comments: "In the past, opponents of 4x4s have disliked the vehicles' fuel consumption and some people have believed they make congestion worse. Over the last couple of years, more fuel efficient, smaller engine 4x4 vehicles have been launched, allaying motorists' concerns.

"However, the 4x4 sector is split between the smaller engine, fuel-efficient models which are seeing a rise in demand and the larger, higher CO2 emitting counterparts which are dipping in demand, as motorists struggle to reconcile the growing running costs, increased fuel prices and tax disincentives.

"Historically, there have been seasonal influences on 4x4 vehicle demand, but our new research shows that even in the summer months, demand remains buoyant. And prices have remained high this year. In 2011, the 4x4 sector that has recorded price resilience not seen in any other area of the market.

"As major manufacturers continue to invest in more fuel efficient, smaller engine 4x4s, we will continue to see demand continue to grow as motorists favour their size, safety and road handling in bad weather conditions."

Seat replaces the Leon Cupra with Leon FR+ as Marshall sales expand

SEAT has revised its range of performance Leon cars by replacing the Cupra model with a new FR+.

One in four Leons sold last year was in FR trim, so this move aims to capitalise on that popularity.

The range-topping Cupra R model is here to stay, though, with extra kit and a £10 price reduction for 61-plate models.

The new performance Leon range starts with the FR, which will be available with either a 123bhp turbocharged 1.4 petrol engine or a 138bhp diesel, the latter of which can be ordered with a twin-clutch paddle-operated DSG gearbox. These models are designed to appeal to buyers who might be limited by insurance or cost limitations.

A step up is the new, more aggressive FR+ model, which houses either a 208bhp petrol powerplant or a 167bhp diesel one. Over and above FR spec it adds special 18-inch alloy wheels, Seat's latest satnav system, bi-xenon headlights and front parking sensors. The FR already has a set across the rear.

The combined value of these extras comes to £2,465 at the manufacturer's recommended retail prices, but the premium for all this on the FR+ is only £1,070.

The FR range starts at £18,205 on the road, while the most expensive FR+ model before adding any further options is £22,615.

The Seat Leon FR+: Part of a model range that is selling brilliantly at Marshall Seat.

While the popularity of the FR trim level relative to the base Cupra has seen the Cupra dropped from the line-up altogether, more than £1,600 of extras have been added to the Cupra R. On top of that, the price has fallen by £10.

The 262bhp petrol-powered Cupra R will get the same satnav as the FR+, LED rear light clusters, Bluetooth connectivity and bi-xenon headlights as standard, for £25,995.

Meanwhile, staff at Marshall Seat have been celebrating after helping the dynamic Spanish car maker clock up record sales in July.

Marshall Seat smashed its sales targets to help the Barcelona-based brand record its highest ever market share for a single month at 2.07 per cent.

The Cambridge dealership helped the marque – famous for models including the Ibiza supermini, Leon family hatchback and multi award-winning Alhambra MPV – to outsell several big name rivals in July.

The latest figures released by the Society of Motor Manufacturers and Traders (SMMT) show Seat nationally has increased its share of the shrinking UK car market by an impressive 6.7 per cent during 2011.

Jamie Lewis, sales manager at Marshall Seat, said: "There may be a lot of doom and gloom about in the economy, but we're bucking that trend and enjoying a tremendous year so far.

"And we don't expect things to slow down any time soon as, in the run-up to the September '61' plate change, our latest suite of special offers is among the best I can remember."

Bareham's a real four-cc

ANDY Bareham won the F Johnson Cup – the Haverhill club's championship – for a staggering fourth year in succession.

In a tight competition, just one point separated the top three players with Dave Spittle beating Andy Fish on countback.

However, there was no place on the honours board for Ed Baker, who set a hot pace in the morning round with a one-under gross 69 who saw his handicap trimmed by two shots to seven.

However, a second-round 83 left him out of competition.

The Spencer Tatum Trophy, for those playing off a handicap of between 10 and 18, was also up for grabs with Wayne Penman taking top spot with a gross 160 which also helped to reduce his handicap by one to 12.

F Johnson Cup – 1 Andy Bareham 76, 72-148, 2 David Spittle 75, 74-149 on countback from 3 Andy Fish 75, 74-149.

Spencer Tatum Trophy – 1 Wayne Penman 78, 82-160, 2 Paul Bartlett 83, 78-161, 3 Mark Stanton 80, 82-162.

Peter Cundall and Ted Brewster from the Haverhill and Flempton club respectively came out top in the Seniors Open at Coupsals Road.

They scored 40 points but

Senior service: Ted Brewster and Peter Cundall after collecting their prizes for winning the Seniors Open. CP

Well done: Spencer Tatum presents his trophy to Wayne Penman while Andy Bareham (below) collected the F Johnson Cup again. CP needed countback to see off Robert Barrett (Bourn) and Peter Merry (John O'Gaunt), who were a point better off than third-placed B Nicholas and L Lord (The Essex).

Other prizes went to - Nearest the pin (2nd) Gary Goodchild (Five Lakes), (8th) Richard Sharp (Haverhill), (12th) Keith Spurden (Cannons Brook). Best front nine score: J Bridgeman, S Shaw (The Essex), back nine Paul Millikin (King's Lynn) and Tony Simpson (Newmarket).

The club's assistant pro Harry Mills finished eighth in the Suffolk Open at Halesworth.

Well in contention throughout, Mills was the leading professional after a round of 70, helped him qualify for the 36-hole medal final. Further rounds of 76 and 71 helped him total 217, 10 shots behind the winner from Stowmarket.

Stephen Boyles and Michael Perrett completed their best competition rounds of the year in the P Bowers Trophy (medal and stableford) competition.

Boyles just had the edge in the medal round, winning on countback from Perrett with James Higham a further shot adrift. All three have had their handicaps reduced by two shots.

Louis Martin won the stableford section with 45 points, one more than Ollie Stevenson.

Details – Medal: 1 Stephen Boyles 75-13-62 on countback from 2 place Michael Perrett 71-9-62, 3 James Higham 81-18-63.

Stableford: 1 Louis Martin 45pts, 2 Ollie Stevenson 44, 3 Joshua Hulver 41.

Neville Felton won the men's midweek medal on countback and has had his handicap cut by a shot to 17.

Details – Division One: 1 Jack Bligh 80-12-68, 2 Neil Farlie 81-12-69, 3 Andy Fish 74-4-70. Division Two: 1 Neville Felton 85-18-67, 2 Allen O'Donoghue 86-18-68, 3 Brian Jones 86-17-69. Division Three: 1 Brian Harney 90-23-67, 2 Hedley Reynolds 97-24-73, 3 Mark Hilton 97-24-73.

Haverhill Juniors were beaten 5-1 by Ipswich (Purdis) at Newton Green in the semi-finals of the Junior Team Handicap Cup.

Paffett finds some pace

GARY Paffett produced a strong drive at the Nurburgring to finish eighth in the latest round of action in the German Touring Cars Championship (DTM).

A tricky qualifying session caused by heavy rainfall resulted in the Haverhill driver starting 13th on the grid.

But a good start helped him move up to ninth by the end of lap one, after which he spent much of the race battling with Miguel Molina, Felipe Albuquerque and Renger van der Zande.

He eventually managed to pass Molina after the second round of pit stops for eighth place and he managed to hold it, eventually crossing the line a little more than half a second adrift of fifth place. It earned him one championship point to draw level with Burwell's Oliver Jarvis, the pair being joint ninth in the drivers' standings with 10 points.

"We knew we were in for a tough race after qualifying in 13th, so considering where I started on the grid I'm happy to have made up five positions," said Mercedes driver Paffett.

"I set the second fastest lap of the race, so it's encouraging to see that the pace is there." Paffett will next be in action in front of their home fans when the DTM heads to Brands Hatch on September 4.

Horseheath get lift from Giles, Ellis

MARTIN Giles and Gary Ellis were both on top form as Horseheath beat Bluntisham to leapfrog their opponents and climb out of the bottom two of the Cricket Stick CCA Senior League, Division One for the first time this season.

Giles led the away team's onslaught by smashing 12 fours and two maximums in his brutal 87, while vice-captain Ellis, who smacked 21 off one Russell Denton over, raced to an unbeaten 67.

Their explosive efforts guided Horseheath to 257 for 5 from their 45 overs, with Jeremy Wright (2 for 31) managing to avoid being sent to all parts.

Bluntisham openers Steve Gawthrop and Tom Acton both departed for ducks and, although Paul Briggs hit 27, the hosts crashed to 64 for 6.

Wright made 53 and Paul Bigger contributed 36, but Ellis claimed 4 for 42, Ben Piper 3 for 49 and Giles 2 for 23 as Bluntisham, who are now in the drop zone, were out for 182.

Weston Colville's four-wicket win over Walden has left a severe dent in the Essex team's hopes of promotion from Division Two of the Tucker Gardner Cambs and Hunts Premier League. Walden could only muster 151 and despite losing early wickets, Adam Curtis (43) and Adam Taylor (20) and Peter Bragg (30 not out) took the score to 152 for 6.

Johnson blast puts Rovers on the right path

Histon Academy 2 Haverhill Rovers 8 Under-14 friendly

A DOMINANT second-half performance earned Haverhill Rovers a notable scalp as they continue their build-up to the new Eastern Junior Alliance season. With players returning from holidays, Rovers were able to field a good squad and their decent passing game earned them a 2-1 lead, Michael Johnson scoring both goals.

Although the Blue Square Bet North's Academy side equalised, Rovers raised their game and stretched clear with goals from Lewis, Johnson, Mila, Gardner (2) and Nkem-Paul.

Rovers' under-14s also gave their elders at the club a good run for their money before losing 1-0 in a midweek friendly.

The two new sides produced an interesting game, which was decided by a goal in the early stages and the under-15s physical strength.

Webb's spin has World turning...

OFF-SPINNER Scott Webb was named man-of-the-match last Thursday when Haverhill took on a star-studded Lashings team at the Manor. After a rain-delayed start, a crowd of around 500 saw the Lashings World XI, containing a number of former Test stars from across the globe, bat first. New Zealander Ian Butler top scored with 82 as the representative side reached 202 for 8 from their 30 overs with Webb taking 5 for 30 and the ball, signed by his victims. Haverhill finished on 160 for 8 with Dan Poole top-scoring on 42. Among the stars taking part in the match – which raises funds for Haverhill's thriving youth academy – were Phil DeFreitas, Saqlain Mushtaq, Mohammed Akram, John Emburey, Devon Malcolm, James Marshall and Lou Vincent.

Defeat 'a big blow': Youngs

THE difference between success and failure at the highest level at which they have played was magnified for Haverhill on Saturday.

And it leaves them with a mountain to climb as they try to preserve their Marshall Hatchick Two Counties League, Division One status.

They suffered a 55-run home defeat by Maldon in the relegation battle at the Manor, which although leaving the winners second from bottom with two sides definitely going down, has Haverhill marooned third off the basement and under threat if a team from the Gibbs Denley East Anglian Premier League falls into the Two Counties.

Once again it was an indifferent batting display which led to their downfall. Chasing an obtainable 187 for 5, the home side looked to be on course when Sam Powell and Bill Moran guided them to 45 for 0 off 11 overs. However, within three overs that became 47 for 3 and they slipped to 132 all out with the bulk of their runs coming from Powell (30), Luke Youngs (24), Dave Brown (23), and the debut-making Liam Savage (20).

Skipper Simon Youngs said: "This was a big blow, an extremely disappointing result."

"It's very frustrating as yet again our batting collapsed. Yes, we were not helped by some dubious decisions but, in the end, the application is just not there."

"Our bowlers, I thought, did a reasonable job, especially Anthony (Phillips), but batting-wise five players got in but couldn't turn their starts into big scores – and that's the difference at this level."

Things are not looking any better for Haverhill this weekend as they travel to second-placed Wivenhoe on Saturday without Scott Webb and Adam Dellar.

The feeling of despair was lifted by the two Sunday sides, who rounded off the club's 150th anniversary cricket week with two victories.

For the first team it was their third success on the trot and should see them finish mid-table in the Hunts County Bats Sunday League, First XI, while the seconds clinched the Division Four title.

With some players participating in their fifth game of the week, Haverhill looked a little jaded early on against Woolpit, but Russell Davis (86), Phil Dingley (51) and Savage (39) lifted the score to 273 for 8 – on the face of it a decent score but with South African professional Andy Northcote opening the visitors' batting, anything was possible.

As it was, Northcote thundered to 118 before he was caught by Dan Pass off Dean Sharpe (3 for 26). His dismissal was the turning point and Woolpit subsided to 229 for 9.

Haverhill II triumphed on an extremely difficult pitch at Great Cornard where inconsistent bounce on a pudding of a track led them to wobble at 30 for 7 then 63 for 9. That they reached 109, largely thanks to Ben Wilkins' superb unbeaten 51, was seen as something of an achievement.

Liam Botten (10-1-38-3) did the early damage as the home side lurched to 42 for 4, but a staggering spell of three wickets for one run in 23 balls sent them spiralling to 77 all out.

Fixtures, Saturday - Marshall Hatchick Two Counties Championship, Division One: Wivenhoe v Haverhill, Division Six: Haverhill II v Ipswich III (6pm).

Sunday - Hunts County Bats Sunday League, first XI: Sudbury v Haverhill, Division Four: Haverhill II v Mildenhall II (1.30pm).

Rovers get off the mark but Betts is still looking for right blend as Cup campaign starts

Haverhill Rov 3 Walsham-le-Willows 0

Ridgeons League, Premier Division GOALS from Harry Hall, Stuart Wardley and Scott Lodge gave Haverhill Rovers their first win of the season on Tuesday.

It set the club on the right path after they slipped to a 2-1 opening day defeat at First Division champions Gorleston on Saturday and puts them in the right frame of mind for the FA Cup, extra preliminary round tie at Stowmarket this weekend.

Hall opened the scoring on 42 minutes with Harvey then making it 2-0 after 79. Lodge completed the win in stoppage time to give boss Peter Betts plenty to think about as he ponders his first-choice line-up.

"We've got plenty of competition for places," he said. "I'm not sure what my best team is yet, but we need to get it right in the next couple of games to find some consistency."

"The FA Cup game on Saturday is really important because of the financial rewards the competition can bring."

The highlight of the defeat at Gorleston was a debut goal from Dan Cornwell, who arrived from Stansted on the eve of the season. The longtime transfer target had scored 28 goals in all competitions for the Essex side last season, and marked his first Rovers appearance with a blistering drive which put the visitors ahead.

Rovers felt a foul should have been awarded on Stuart Wardley in the build-up to Gorleston's equaliser, and they were caught on the counter-attack for the winner.

"We've only got ourselves to blame," said boss Peter Betts.

"We had a few half-chances at 2-1 down, but it wasn't to be."

"We went 1-0 up with a hell of a goal from Dan Cornwell. He was 25 yards out and it went right in the top corner."

"We were dominating possession, but we couldn't turn the screw. It looked like we were going to be all right in the second half, but we were a bit rusty – not having played for 12 days didn't help. We picked up a few injuries in pre-season as well, but there are no excuses."

"There were too many people that didn't perform."

Rovers are pencilled in for a league game at the New Croft on Tuesday, depending on Saturday's result in the Cup.
